TOUR THE CAPITALS CULINARY DELIGHTS.

Berlin is quickly becoming one of most diverse and multicultural cities in Europe, drawing people & food from every country and culture. Join us for a taste of Berlin's ever growing culinary scene with a tour of some of the best cafe's, street food, farmers markets, and hidden local gems in town.

Start the day at a traditional German bakery, Zeit für Brot, for coffee and fresh baked bread & cakes. Then take a stroll through the historic KaDeWe, the largest and most luxurious department store on the European continent, featuring a food court the likes of which you've never seen, with the freshest & highest quality ingredients imported daily from across the globe.

Switch gears and see the city like a local at the Winterfeldmarkt, one of the oldest and largest farmer's markets in Berlin, where you can find locally grown produce and treats from the region. Next satisfy that sweet tooth at the classic Café Einstein Stammhaus home to Berlin's best Strudel.

For lunch we'll head down to the hip up & coming district of Kreuzberg to sample the quintessential Berlin foods: Curry Wurst, a dish that only could have only come about in Berlin thanks to the confluence of German, British, and American influences after the war, and of course Döner Kebab, a traditional Turkish dish that took on a whole new life in Berlin.
